

REDPATH BUCHANAN
GENERAL HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT

It is this Company's intention that its work will be carried out in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions and all reasonable practicable measures taken to avoid risk to its employees or others who may be affected.

The Company is committed to meeting its statutory duties as laid down under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1992 and Construction (Health, Safety and Welfare) Regulations 1996 and so far as is reasonably practicable will:-

- * Provide and maintain plant, systems of work and an environment which is safe.
- * Provide such information, instruction, training and supervision as necessary to ensure the Health and safety of employees at work.
- * Ensure the safety and absence of hazards to health in connection with the use of handling storage and transport of articles and substances
- * Implement regular risk assessments and where hazards are identified install appropriate preventive and protective measures to control, reduce or eliminate the risk. Appropriate health surveillance will be provided where a need is identified by the risk assessment.
- * Regularly consult with employees on all Health & Safety matters

Management and supervisory staff have the responsibility for implementing this Policy throughout the company and must ensure that health and safety considerations are always given priority in planning and day-to-day supervision of work.

All employees and sub-contractors are expected to co-operate with the Company in carrying out this policy and must ensure that their own work, so far as is reasonably practicable, is carried out without risk to themselves or others.

The Directors have appointed Mr RJ Randall Director, as having particular responsibility for health, safety and welfare and to give advice on the requirements of the relevant statutory provisions and safety matters generally and to whom reference should be made in the event of any difficulty arising in the implementation of this Policy.

This statement of the Company Policy will be displayed prominently at all sites and workplaces.

The organisation and arrangements for implementing the Policy will also be available at each site and workplace for reference by any employee as required.
